

Resources for the Flood of 1902

- "Bangor is Free from All Danger of Flooding." Bangor Daily Commercial 21 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "Bangor is Swept by Freshet, Greatest Since Flood of 1846." Bangor Daily Commercial 21 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "Flood Loss Estimated at Nearly $300,000." Bangor Daily Commercial 21 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "The Ice is Gone-Disaster is Averted." Bangor Daily News Saturday 22 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "It's Receding." Bangor Daily Commercial 21 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "More Chapters of Bangor's Flood Story." Bangor Daily News Monday 24 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "Penobscot, Choked with Ice Jams, Flows in Streets, Flooding Basements and Causing Great Damage to Stocks of Merchandise." Bangor Daily Commercial 21 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "Repairing Now." Bangor Daily Commercial 22, Mar 1902, Print.
- "Streets Flooded, Two Bridges Swept Away!." Bangor Daily News Friday 21 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "Two Bridges Swept Away by Roaring Flood." Bangor Daily Commercial 21 Mar. 1902, Print.
- "Water is Rising." Bangor Daily Commercial 19 Mar. 1902, Print.

Resources for the Flood of 1902

- Buckley, Ken. "Woman Leapfrogs From Roof to Roof." Bangor Daily News. February 3, 1976. Print.
- "Most Kenduskeag Stream Businesses Had No Flood Insurance." Bangor Daily News. February 6, 1976. Sec. 1. Print
- "One Bank Still Closed." Bangor Daily News. February 5, 1976. Print.
- Remsen, Nancy. "Bangor's Dramatic 'Flood of '76' Caught Most People by Surprise." Bangor Daily News. March 13-14, 1976. Print.
- Remsen, Nancy. "Her Nose Up to the Ceiling ." Bangor Daily News. February 3, 1976: Front Page. Print.

Strout, Jeff. "Bangor Flood clean-up Begins." Bangor Daily News. February 4, 1976, city: sec. 1. Print.

Strout, Jeff. "Flood Damage Tops $2 Million." Bangor Daily News. February 5, 1976, city: sec. 2. Print.

"Storm, Tides Batter State." Bangor Daily News February 5, 1976, Front Page and Page 2 (Col.7). Print.